National Association of Tax Professionals partners with leading secure messaging, file sharing company

NATP and Verifyle partner to address growing threat of cyber security and hackers

APPLETON, Wis. (Sept. 20, 2023) – The National Association of Tax Professionals (NATP) is partnering with Verifyle, a leader in secure messaging, file sharing and digital signatures, to provide critical solutions to keep tax offices secure for the 2023 and 2024 filing season.

Tax preparers are a frequent target for cyber security hackers due to the nature and amount of data they have stored about their clients. Threats of this nature are only increasing as technology continues to advance.

“Taxpayers deserve to know their tax preparer is using appropriate tools when it comes to keeping their information and data secure,” said NATP Executive Director Scott Artman, CPA, CGMA. “NATP’s partnership with Verifyle allows our members to access critical services to keep their clients’ most sensitive and personal information safe.”

Unlike many other cloud-storage and cloud-sharing services, which use a single master key for encrypting and decrypting their users’ data, Verifyle’s Cellucrypt® technology uses password-derived keys on top of a public-key system to individually encrypt data elements, adding several additional layers of protection for their users. With the additional option to disable password reset, Verifyle becomes the most secure cloud-sharing platform available, while remaining extremely simple to use.

NATP members receive a discounted monthly subscription rate to Verifyle’s services.
