IRS Commissioner Werfel to Open NATP 2024 Taxposium

The industry's premier event for tax professionals attracts the country's leaders in tax administration

APPLETON, Wis. (March 28, 2024) – The National Association of Tax Professionals (NATP)'s annual Taxposium event will kick off with IRS Commissioner Danny Werfel.

Following Werfel's session will be a panel discussion boasting key IRS decision-makers, including:

- Terry Lemons, chief, communications and liaison
- Courtney Kay-Dekker, deputy chief, taxpayer experience officer
- Dietra Grant, director, customer account services (CAS)
- Larry Gray, CPA, NATP IRS liaison (moderator)

This year's 2024 Taxposium will occur at the Walt Disney World Dolphin on July 22-24. Taxposium is the tax industry's elite education event, where tax practitioners from around the country gather for an inspired exchange of ideas with industry thought leaders, top tax educators and exhibitors.

"We're thrilled to welcome Commissioner Werfel and his esteemed IRS colleagues to this year's Taxposium," said NATP CEO Scott Artman, CPA, CGMA. "Their presence highlights the value of the well-educated and knowledgeable professional tax preparers and highlights Taxposium as the leading industry event."

To speak with someone further about this event or to access the Commissioner's address live at the event, please contact Samantha Strong or Nancy Kasten.
