Taxposium 2023 details released, registration now open

NATP offering discounted registration through Jan. 6, 2023

APPLETON, Wis. (Nov. 14, 2022) – The country’s top association for tax preparers is gearing up for its second-annual Taxposium event, with pre-sale registration now open through Jan. 6, 2023.

The National Association of Tax Professionals (NATP) launched its industry-leading tax education event, Taxposium, in 2022 to gather the best and brightest minds for a week of education, networking, personal and personal and professional growth.

The 2023 event will take place in San Antonio from July 24 through July 26 at the Grand Hyatt River Walk hotel, 600 E. Market St.

“It’s difficult to think we could top the incredible experience we all had at last year’s inaugural event, but our team has been working harder than ever to make this year’s Taxposium the can’t-miss event of the year,” said NATP’s Program Manager of In-Person Events Amanda Joslin. “Not only do we have the beauty and excitement of San Antonio to take advantage of, but attendees will leave feeling reinvigorated and inspired to take their career to the next level – however that looks to them.”

Registration is open now and more details can be found at taxposium.com. NATP members receive discounted registration. Industry-related vendors should email strategicrelations@natptax.com for exhibition opportunities.
