NATP partners with RCReports to help tax pros ensure compliance, maximize client savings

APPLETON, Wis. (Dec. 18, 2024) – The National Association of Tax Professionals (NATP) is excited to announce a partnership with RCReports, a leader in reasonable compensation analysis. This partnership offers NATP members a $400 discount on RCReports' Professional plans, providing tax professionals with tools to ensure compliance, reduce risk and uncover payroll tax savings for clients.

RCReports generates accurate reasonable compensation reports using proprietary data and IRS-aligned methodologies. Its platform simplifies the process, helping tax professionals meet IRS expectations and address compensation challenges for closely held businesses.

"This partnership provides our members with the tools they need to tackle a nuanced area of tax practice — reasonable compensation," said Scott Artman, CEO of NATP. "By leveraging RCReports, our members can confidently address IRS compliance while uncovering opportunities to deliver even greater value to their clients."

RCReports uses cost, market and income approaches approved by the IRS to produce defensible calculations. The platform's user-friendly design enables professionals to create detailed reports, offering peace of mind for audits and strategic guidance for clients.

"Tax professionals are key to ensuring businesses stay compliant while optimizing their financial strategies," said Paul Hamann, President of RCReports. "We're proud to partner with NATP to deliver greater value to its members."
